GDPR Compliance Statement for Kiwa UK Group

“Kiwa UK Group” means Kiwa Holdings (UK) Limited and its subsidiaries (direct and indirect) in each case as existing at the date of this Agreement or at any time thereafter.

Kiwa UK Group is committed to ensuring the protection of personal data in compliance with the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR) and the Data Protection Act 2018. This statement outlines our approach to data protection and privacy, demonstrating our adherence to the principles of accountability, privacy by design, and privacy by default, as well as our commitment to regular reviews and the roles of our designated privacy and security officers.

Kiwa UK Group recognises its responsibility as a data controller under Article 5(2) of the UK GDPR to ensure compliance with the principles of data protection. We have implemented robust governance measures, including detailed data audits and data mapping exercises, to identify and document the personal data we process and the methods of processing. These records are regularly updated to reflect our current activities, ensuring transparency and compliance with the UK.

In accordance with Article 25 of the UK GDPR, Kiwa UK Group integrates data protection into all processing activities and business practices from the design stage through the lifecycle of our systems, services, and processes. To maintain compliance with the UK GDPR, Kiwa UK Group conducts regular reviews and audits of our data processing activities. These Kiwa UK Group has appointed a Corporate Privacy Officer, UK Privacy Officer, and UK Security Officer to oversee and manage data protection compliance. These officers are responsible for ensuring that data protection principles are embedded within the organisation’s operations, providing training to staff, and maintaining communication with the Information Commissioner’s Office (ICO) as required. They also ensure that the organisation’s policies and procedures are up-to-date and effectively implemented to safeguard personal data.

Kiwa UK Group is dedicated to maintaining the highest standards of data protection and privacy, ensuring compliance with the UK GDPR and safeguarding the rights of data subjects.
